Fedora Ambassadors Steering Committee Survey

This survey tries to explore the view of Fedora Project Ambassadors about the goals that the Fedora Project Board has set for 2011. Fedora Ambassadors Steering Committee would like to hear your opinion about those goals. This survey aims to help Fedora Ambassadors Steering Committee lead the way most ambassador think will be the most useful, to support ambassador activities and to prioritize actions.
You may want to review the following documents before proceeding to the survey, but it is not mandatory to do so.

1. Board Goals 2011
2. Board Meeting December 13th, 2010

Be assured that the result will be published as soon as possible. We will not share specific responses. The publication of the results will be as whole taking statistics of all data collected.

There are 14 questions in this survey

General Data

This section will explore general data about the contributor.

Please choose only one of the following:

- Ambassadors only
- Ambassadors +1 other team
- Ambassadors +2 other teams
- Ambassadors +3 other teams
- Ambassadors +more that 3 other teams
Ambassador activities

This section explores what ambassadors do and how they feel the support for their activities.

3 [3] As a Fedora Ambassador, to what activity do you devote most time? *

Please choose only one of the following:

- Organizing events (contacting people, securing location, booth time)
- Preparing and giving presentations
- Securing swag and media for the event
- Documenting (Writing wikipages, writing reports, creating tutorials, blogging, social network)
- Pointing people in the right direction (personally, emails, forums)

4 [4] Do you feel that you got proper support for executing your role? *

Please choose only one of the following:

- Very well supported
- Need more support in some issues
- Only got support for few things
- I got no support

5 [5] What kind of support is the most urgent for you? *

Please number each box in order of preference from 1 to 6:

- Media
- Swag (Stickers, leaflets, and promotional stuff)
- Guidance to execute my role
- Schedule calls to recall what it is needed to do
- Presentation, videos, podcast to show others
- Link with other ambassadors to team up in activities.
Board Goals

This section explores the goals set by the Fedora Project Board.

6 [6] Rank the short list of goals given by the Fedora Project Board as what do you feel are the most important for Fedora project as a whole *

Please number each box in order of preference from 1 to 5

- Expand global presence of Fedora among users & contributors
- It is extraordinarily easy to join the Fedora Community and quickly find a project to work on
- Improve and encourage high-quality communication in the Fedora Community
- Improve education and skill sharing in community
- Improve and simplify collaboration in the Fedora Community

Here we take the goals in a broad perspective, think in terms of the whole Fedora Project and not just for Fedora Ambassadors.

7 [7] Rank in order of relevance what goals you feel are more close to what you do as a Fedora Ambassador *

Please number each box in order of preference from 1 to 5

- Expand global presence of Fedora among users & contributors
- It is extraordinarily easy to join the Fedora Community and quickly find a project to work on
- Improve and encourage high-quality communication in the Fedora Community
- Improve education and skill sharing in community
- Improve and simplify collaboration in the Fedora Community

Now we approach the same goals, and this time we think specifically in terms of the Fedora Ambassadors.

8 [8] Which of the following statements you feel is the most related to your role as ambassador *

Please choose only one of the following:

- Provide infrastructure to help people control their content and devices (Ex: Event Calendar)
- Recruiting new / less-common skillsets into the project (Ex: project manager, designers)
- "Access from anywhere strategy"
- Encourage open standards
| Get more involvement with upstream / sidestream FLOSS Communities |
| Improve awareness and utilization of Fedora Community resources |
| Sharing responsibilities (mentorship, documentation of tasks / SOPs, sharing skills) |
| Evaluate late-breaking technologies for inclusion / interaction with Fedora |
| Improve remote real-time & high-bandwidth collaboration |
| Improve Fedora Developer experience |

Those are the extended list of goals that were cut off the short list.

9 [9] Which goals do you think will be the most beneficial for Fedora Project as a whole.

* Please choose only one of the following:

| Provide infrastructure to help people control their content and devices (Ex: Event Calendar) |
| Recruiting new / less-common skillsets into the project (Ex: project manager, designers) |
| “Access from anywhere strategy” |
| Encourage open standards |
| Get more involvement with upstream / sidestream FLOSS Communities |
| Improve awareness and utilization of Fedora Community resources |
| Sharing responsibilities (mentorship, documentation of tasks / SOPs, sharing skills) |
| Evaluate late-breaking technologies for inclusion / interaction with Fedora |
| Improve remote real-time & high-bandwidth collaboration |
| Improve Fedora Developer experience |

Again thinking on a global perspective for the entire project.
